

2022-23 Board of Directors

Darci Owens

darci@sarodeo.com

Darci has worked for the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo since October 2014 and currently serves as the Rodeo Officer.

Darci's family ranches in Crockett County where they raise cattle, goats and sheep and run a hunting operation. In addition to her time spent with the rodeo, she enjoys playing basketball, traveling and spending time with her niece and nephew.

Justin Watada

justin@greeleystampede.org

Justin has held multiple positions during his 18 years with the Greeley Stampede and currently serves as the CEO. He oversees the daily operations, finance, marketing, sales and sponsorships while reporting to a Board of Directors, working with a working Committee, leading a full-time staff, and coordinating hundreds of top-notch volunteers.

He has been a member of the Association of Rodeo Committees Board of Directors since 2018. Justin enjoys leading Colorado's premier western summer celebration while giving back to the community.

Johnny Philipello

johnny@bucdays.com

Johnny is President & CEO of the Buccaneer Commission (Rodeo Corpus Christi). He has served in this role since 2015. Buc Days, the event that Johnny produces annually, host Rodeo Corpus Christi, PBR's Velocity Tour Finals, Wings Over South Texas featuring the Blue Angels and a variety of attractions, such as live music, shopping and parades. Prior to his current role, Johnny was Chief Operating Officer for Rodeo Austin. He has been an active Board Member of the Association of Rodeo Committees since 2016.

Johnny also serves on the Visit Corpus Christi Board of Directors and is a Board Member for the Texas 4-H Foundation.

Jim Williams

jimw1@web-ster.com

Jim has been a member of Canby Rodeo for more than 30 years and currently serves as the Secretary/Treasurer of the Canby Rodeo Association.

He is a life member of the PRCA as a Gold Card member. Jim has held numerous positions on the ARC board and has been the Treasurer for the past 7 years.

Wes Allison

wes@hotfair.com

Wes is President and CEO for the Extraco Events Center Home of the Heart O' Texas Fair & Rodeo and has served in his current role since 2002. Currently, the Events Center host over 225 events per year ranging from large equine event to sports events to concerts. The annual Heart O' Texas Fair & Rodeo has an attendance of 235,000 and awards over $500,000 per year in scholarships and premiums to Texas Youth. Wes has also served as the president for the North American Livestock Show & Rodeo Managers Association, the Texas Association of Fair & Events and the Executive Committee of the Texas 4-H Foundation Board of Directors.

Craig Downie

geinstall@aol.com

Craig is a fourth generation Nevadan who was born and raised in Reno. He runs an office furniture installation business and has been a volunteer with Reno Rodeo since 1990. Craig served on numerous Reno Rodeo committees over the years from public parking to the Arena Director and served as Reno Rodeo President for 2020 and 2021. He has 3 sons that also are part of the Reno Rodeo and serve on the Reno Rodeo Board of Directors.

Elaine Gall

dodgecityroundup.elaine@hotmail.com

Elaine is a life-long resident of Dodge City and began volunteering at Dodge City Roundup in 2002. She was elected to the board in 2010 and served briefly as Treasurer before being employed full-time as the Office Manager in 2012. She is currently an active member of the local Tourism Coalition and chairs the Convention & Visitors Bureau advisory board. She has served as co-chair of ARC's Global Rodeo Conference for the last 3 years. Elaine loves promoting Dodge City wherever she goes, and is proud to be a part of Kansas' Richest Rodeo. In her spare time, she enjoys playing in pool leagues, spending time with her two young grandsons and traveling with friends

Julie Graber

jagscox@cox.net

Julie Graber grew up in Pretty Prairie on the same farm where the rodeo was started before it moved to town in 1936 to later become Kansas Largest Night Rodeo. In addition to her being the Executive Secretary of the organization that produces Kansas Largest Night Rodeo, she is also the secretary and treasurer of the Prairie ProRodeo Circuit, a Hutchinson Chamber of Commerce Ambassador, a member of the local Rotary Club, and serves on the Commercial Lending Committee of the Schools of Banking. Julie is a Commercial and Agriculture Loan Officer at KANZA Bank in Hutchinson. A die-hard Wildcat, she graduated from K-State with a B.S. in Business Management.

Association of Rodeo Committees
2022-23 Board of Directors

Tom Hirsig

tom@cfdrodeo.com

Tom Hirsig is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Cheyenne Frontier Days (CFD). A Wyoming native, Hirsig grew up on his family's cattle ranch north of Cheyenne. He attended the University of Wyoming on a rodeo scholarship, where he qualified for the College National Finals three times, and earned a bachelor's degree in Agricultural Business. A member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), Hirsig is a three-time Mountain States PRCA Champion Steer Roper. He finished sixth in the world standings in 1987, and was the 1987 Pendleton Round-Up Steer Roping Champion. He won the CFD Steer Roping Championship in 2002.

Kevin Jordan

Kevin.Jordan@pendletonroundup.com

Kevin has been a volunteer for the Pendleton Round-Up for numerous years before joining the Board of Directors in late 2018. He is currently the Association Treasurer and Director of Office/Retail/Ticketing functions.

When not at work for the Pendleton Round-Up, he is the SVP/CCO for a Commercial Loan Team with a NE Oregon based Credit Union.

Matt Matthews

gmatthews@gogreenway.com

Matt has been a member of the Sikeston Jaycee Bootheel rodeo for 30 plus year. Former Board of Directors for 10 years and has served as Chairman of the Rodeo in 2009. He has been Rodeo Arena Director for 7 years with past role with grounds pens and chutes.

He is employed at Greenway Equipment for the past 2 1/2 years. Matt is married and enjoys spending time with his two children and grandson.

Kent Meshishnek

kentmeshishnek@hotmail.com

Kent is a former member of the Lewiston Roundup board of directors, where he served for 19 years, several of those years as an executive board member. Now a member of the Walla Walla Fair & Frontier Days Rodeo Committee. Kent joined the ARC in 2001.

A native of Lewiston, Idaho area, Kent graduated from Lewiston High School. Now retired for 3 years after delivering mail for the US Postal Service for 39 years. Married to his wife Patti for 44 years, has one son and one grandson.

Association of Rodeo Committees
2022-23 Board of Directors

Jim Slaten

jslaten@carodeo.com

Jim has been a part of California Rodeo Salinas for more than 30 years including being an Officer for 6 years and President for 2 years. Currently, he now leads the largest rodeo in California as the event's General Manager.

Leon Vick

lvick@nationalwestern.com

After 21-year career competing in professional rodeo, Leon joined the NWSS Staff in 2005. Leon managed sponsorships for National Western before taking on rodeo production in 2013. Now the VP of Rodeo, Horse and Livestock Operations Leon oversees the Rodeo, Horse Show, The Super Bowl of Livestock Shows and an additional 13-ticketed events during the 16 day National Western.

Leon and his wife, Taleen, hail from Byers, Colorado and have two adult children who both compete in rodeo.

Kynan Vine

kynanvine85@gmail.com

Kynan grew up in the sport of rodeo with a father who was a bullfighter and a mother who was a barrel racer. He started competing in rodeo at a young age and began his professional bullfighting career at age 17. While competing in rodeo at a professional level was always a goal, it was not his only passion. Kynan began his career in rodeo production at age 15 when he produced his first bull riding event. After graduating college he began working with the Pro Rodeo Canada and was the Rodeo Administrator there for 5 years.

Cal White

cal@fwssr.com

Cal is the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo Rodeo Director and a resident of Decatur, Texas. He is married to his beautiful wife, Vianey - with whom they have two sons and a daughter, Ryett (9 years old), Ryder (5 years old) and Gracie (3 years old). After 13 years of riding bulls, he obtained a Bachelor of General Studies and Master of Communications degrees from West Texas A&M University in Canyon, TX.

In his spare time, he owns and operates a sprinkler repair and backflow testing business and runs a small cow/calf operation with his father in Wise County, TX.

Association of Rodeo Committees
2022-23 Board of Directors

Doug Corey

dgcdvm@gmail.com

Doug is the Veterinarian Chairman and a member of the PRCA Livestock Committee. He has been involved with PRCA Livestock since 1981.

Randy Bracher

randy@bracherfarms.com

Randy is a 5th generation farmer and rancher on a diversified operation north of Pendleton, Oregon. They raise wheat, cattle, various irrigated crops and pears. He has been married for 19 years to a leather maker and they have two children, Sydney (17) and Blair (15).

He enjoys the sport of rodeo, and improving it with an emphasis on stock and production entertainment value. Randy has served on open rodeo and college rodeo boards before joining the Pendleton Round-Up Board of Directors as the Livestock Director since 2013.

Association of Rodeo Committees
2022-23 Board of Directors