What is your favorite place to visit in Portland and why? My favorite place in Portland is Sellwood Riverfront Park, or "the docks," which holds special memories of joy, friendship, and beauty. Surrounded by greenery, sparkling water, and a stunning city skyline, it's where I find peace and happiness while spending time with friends and family.

What are you most proud of during your high school career? When I moved from Austin, Texas to Portland, I felt isolated and disconnected, but I made it my mission to build friendships and create a community at Cleveland High. I'm most proud of overcoming my loneliness and now having people to rely on for support, with familiar faces to wave to in the hallways and friends to share lunch and comfort with.

What is your favorite Rose Festival event and why? The Grand Floral Parade is my favorite Rose Festival event because it was one of the first I attended with my family after moving to Portland, giving me a true sense of the city's beauty, warmth, and festive spirit. It introduced me to the Rose Festival Court and other wonderful aspects of Portland, making the parade a meaningful reflection of all the things I've come to love about this city.
