

SALE FFA Product Summary

Squeeze Chute

Purpose

- This Squeeze Chute is specifically designed to meet the demands of cattlemen who work and handle cattle without the assistance of others.
- The customer of this Squeeze Chute is any cattleman, but especially one that handles cattle independently and has the need for a vertical tailgate and palpation cage.
- This Squeeze Chute offers versatility in what type of functions can be performed. Not only does it allow for a one-man operation, but its size and accessories allow for more uses.
- There are a multitude of cattle livestock handling equipment manufacturers. Several of the primary manufacturers include WW Livestock Systems, Priefert Farm, Ranch, & Rodeo, Tarter Farm & Ranch Equipment, as well as many others.

Product Specifications

- Height: 92"
- Approx. Weight: 1,503 lbs.
- Width: 46.5"
- Length: 97"

MSRP

$2,750 per unit

Product Features

- All controls on the front corner of chute of one-man operation.
- Retractable squeeze arm allows for safe, unrestrictive movement around the chute by the operator.
- Hinged dropbars on both sides of chute with foolproof gravity latches.
- Steel floor with floor cleats for extra footing.
- Self-catch headgate, vertical tailgate, and palpation cage.

The versatility and added features of this Squeeze Chute make this a must for a cattleman with a small to mid-size operations.