This application is neither an offer nor a guarantee of space.

1. All questions must be answered completely before consideration for space can be given. Incomplete applications will not be accepted or returned.
2. The list of products you are requesting to sell/display/promote/giveaway must be specific. Words such as “accessories”, “related products”, “gifts”, “etcetera”, and other vague descriptions are not acceptable. If a contract is issued, it will be assigned based on this list only, so please be thorough. We will verify items in your booth match the list provided.
3. Sound transmissions such as radios, televisions sets, and voice amplification systems are subject to prior approval of the Fair. Volume in excess of conversational levels is strictly prohibited. The fair reserves all rights to turn down off the system. This privilege may be revoked at any time during the event.
4. If you are selected as a commercial vendor, you will be required to fill out a MEGAN’S LAW, to ensure public safety and awareness. The SBC Fair’s policy requires that all persons conducting business during any SBC Fair event shall provide the necessary personal information to enable their names to be searched through the Department of Justice’s Megan’s Law file. Failure to do so will result in a forfeit of your booth fee.
5. If you are selected as a commercial vendor, Fair Management will determine the location of your booth. In order to do so effectively, please indicate your preference for indoor location and size.

We strive to be as “green” as possible; it is important to provide an e-mail address so we can provide you with the fastest service and most up-to-date information.
