

2026 Miss SLE Rodeo

RULES & REGULATIONS

General

On behalf of the Southeastern Livestock Exposition (SLE), we are excited to welcome each applicant who desires to compete for the title of Miss SLE Rodeo (MSLER). The SLE Rodeo is a proud member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and ranks in the top 15% of over 700 rodeos. It is our hope that each contestant understands the magnitude of this achievement, and that each is prepared to represent the Southeastern Livestock Exposition in a professional and dignified manner. Throughout the reign, J / MSLER is expected to observe a high standard of moral and ethical behavior at all times including her presence on all social media. Breaking any rules outlined in the MSLER contract will entail immediate revocation of title. In the event that MSLER forfeits her title, the first runner-up will assume the queen's position and obligations for the remainder of the reign.

Purpose and Expectations

The purpose of MSLER is to serve as an ambassador for the Southeastern Livestock Exposition and to professionally represent her title at various rodeos, parades, and public events in Alabama, as well as television and radio interviews during the SLE Rodeo & Livestock Week. She will serve as an ambassador of the sport of rodeo and the western lifestyle. She will also be a leader for future pageant contestants as well as other title holders. Once crowned and contract is signed, MSLER will begin her reign immediately, and it is expected that she will be able to speak about the SLE mission, how to purchase SLE Rodeo tickets, the schedule of SLE Rodeo Week activities, and achievements of the SLE Rodeo within the PRCA. The MSLER pageant will be held January 17, 2026, and the newly crowned MSLER will need to be prepared to attend SLE Rodeo & Livestock Week activities from March 13-22, 2026. This list of activities is made available within this document as well as on www.SLErodeo.com/queen. The SLE Rodeo will provide MSLER with a stall and camper hookup during the 2026 SLE Rodeo and Livestock Week.

The entry fee for the MSLER pageant is $160.00. All applications, required documentation, and payments must be submitted by mail and postmarked no later than December 1, 2025. No application will be considered if it is postmarked after this date. The Miss SLE Rodeo Committee will review every application and notify applicants of approval status by December 15, 2025. Applicants are not subject to a refund for entry fees if it is found that her application does not meet the eligibility requirements outlined in this document.

Checks must be made out to the Southeastern Livestock Exposition. This must be postmarked no later than 12/1/25.

Travel Expectations

This opportunity is a year-long commitment and will require some out-of-pocket expenses related to travel. The Southeastern Livestock Exposition will provide MSLER with bio cards, autograph sheets, and thank you notes to utilize during her reign. The SLE will also help cover some of MSLER's travel expenses. Our expectation is that she will be required to represent our organization in official queen attire at the following events (unless otherwise specified by the SLE). Please note that the SLE can provide a school excuse for weekday events:

Judged Events

The MSLE pageant will have a panel of three (3) judges. All judges are carefully selected and invited to participate because of their ability and expertise. Should a judge be approached by a contestant's family, friends, or others whose intent is to influence or harass, the judge will report the contact to the Miss SLE Rodeo Committee and appropriate corrective actions will be taken. There will only be one winner selected to hold the title of MSLE, so should there be a tie in the final scoring, the winner with the highest points in the Interview division will be selected to reign. Scoresheets will be available for contestant review by request only via email to shunter@bamabeef.org until January 31, 2026. A contestant (or guardian) is only allowed to request her own scoresheet from the Miss SLE Rodeo Committee.

A complete list of the judged events are as follows:

- Horsemanship – The purpose of this division is to evaluate each contestant's horsemanship skills. Each contestant should provide her own horse for the pageant. She will be evaluated on topics such as riding ability, control of horse, mounting and dismounting, balance, and position of hands, feet, and seat. The horse will not be judged – only the contestant's ability and skill. The rider should appear natural in the saddle with a balanced, functional, and correct position. She will be required to complete a predetermined horsemanship pattern, a hot lap, a flag pattern with a flag provided by the SLE (SLE can supply a flag boot if needed), and a dismounted interview on the dirt with a judge. Judges can request contestants switch horses at any time.
- Modeling – The purpose of this division is to evaluate the stage presence, poise, and grace of each contestant while modeling her formal attire on stage. Each contestant will also be required to answer an on-stage impromptu question.
- Speeches – Each contestant will be required to give a 2-3 minute on-stage speech during the modeling division. This speech should be focused around promoting the SLE Rodeo & Livestock Week events. This division will be judged on stage presence, personality, content, delivery, and usage of time.
- Interview – Each contestant will be privately interviewed by a panel of judges. Questions asked may test the contestant's knowledge of the Southeastern Livestock Exposition, equine anatomy and care, personal goals, or PRCA rodeo events, standings, and rules. Topics to be evaluated are presence, personality, quick-wit, and knowledge. At the conclusion of the sit-down interview, each contestant will participate in a faux 2-minute media interview with questions that could cover topics related to entertainment at the SLE Rodeo, the SLE mission, how to purchase rodeo tickets, personal experience, and more.
- Written Test – A written test will be administered which could cover topics related to the Southeastern Livestock Exposition, PRCA and WPRA rodeo, horsemanship, and equine care.
- Most Photogenic – Each contestant must submit one 8"x10" color photo with her application by mail to the SLE Rodeo Headquarters. This headshot must be of the contestant in western attire complete with a felt cowboy hat. You must list the contestant's name on the back of the photo. The submission should include the photo only – no frame or matting.

Awards

Awards will be presented to the winners of the following divisions: MSLER overall winner, MSLER Most Photogenic, and MSLER Horsemanship.

Disqualifications

At the discretion of the Miss SLE Rodeo committee, contestants may be disqualified for the following infractions: being late to an event, poor sportsmanship, using foul language, animal cruelty, or any attempt to threaten, bribe, influence, harass, or coerce a judge, another contestant, or anyone on site during the MSLER pageant.

Guidelines and Expectations for the Winner of Miss SLE Rodeo

Miss SLE Rodeo is an ambassador who will be noticed by many. During the MSLER reign, it is possible that she will be recognized as MSLER even when she is not making official appearances, so it is imperative that MSLER always looks presentable and conducts herself in an exemplary manner “on and off the clock.” The SLE has a zero-tolerance policy for the use of drugs, tobacco, or alcohol. MSLER is not to be married, engaged to be married, or pregnant during her reign. She must also be mindful of what she posts on all social media platforms. If these rules are broken, revocation of title will ensue.

Victoria Suggs is the Miss SLE Rodeo Committee Chairwoman and will be the queen’s point of contact throughout her reign. When the MSLER reign is complete, the queen will be responsible for returning the chaps and crown back to Victoria in excellent, like new, condition. Should any damages occur or failure to return the above stated property back to the SLE, the queen will be held financially liable for repair or replacement of said items.

Invitations to events must be approved by Victoria Suggs prior to acceptance or declination. Upon approval, MSLER must respond to the invitation within five business days with a polite expression of thanks either accepting or declining. Should MSLER accept an invitation, she should extend an offer to help in any way possible. General conduct at events are as follows: MSLER must always present herself in the appropriate MSLER attire when attending an event. She will arrive early to events and will be professional and poised in her manners (no cursing, making inappropriate or negative remarks or gestures, etc), interact with as many people as possible at each function, and if attending a rodeo, she should arrive one hour prior to performance time. Upon arrival to the rodeo, she is expected to contact an event committee member to notify them of her arrival and hand her bio card to the announcer. It is Miss SLE Rodeo’s responsibility to make sure that Junior Miss SLE Rodeo is taken care of if she is in attendance to the same event. Miss SLE Rodeo will be expected to act as a big sister to JMSLER throughout her reign. Last but not least, be sure to never speak poorly of any aspect of rodeo including, but not limited to, the stock contractor, rodeo committees, officials, horses, equipment, events, etc. MSLER is a representative of the rodeo industry, therefore she must portray a positive light on the sport.

FLAG PATTERN

1. After completing the Horsemanship Pattern, you will execute a Hot Lap around the arena at a fast lope or gallop.
2. Once back at the gate, break your horse down to a trot and continue along the rail on the right side of the arena. At the midway point, turn left and continue a trot to the center of the arena.
3. Come to a stop.
4. Walk straight to the rail, turn left, walk around the rail to the gate.
5. You will then be given a flag to present in the arena at a fast lope or gallop along the rail. You must provide your own flag boot.
