Applications for Salinas Valley Fair Junior Fair Board due October 13th

Local Volunteer Program Seeks Youth Ages 14-21

King City, CA -- The Salinas Valley Fair is seeking young adults for its Junior Fair Board (JFB). As many as twenty-five members are selected to volunteer throughout the year on behalf of the Salinas Valley Fair. Their efforts include assisting at Fair events, providing outreach and the planning, developing and coordinating of events.

“Our Junior Fair Board is a tremendous asset to our organization providing over 1,800 volunteer hours, annually. Their service ensures that the Salinas Valley Fair provides quality programs to our growing community”, says Salinas Valley Fair CEO, TJ Plew. The Junior Fair Board has also proven to be a training ground for future Fair Board members and leaders of the Salinas Valley Fair.”

Potential Junior Fair Board members must be at least 14 years of age and not older than 21. Applicants are to be enrolled in a high school, college or technical school program at the time they begin their service on the Junior Fair Board.

Junior Fair Board members are selected based on the information submitted in their applications without regard to race, religion, color, gender identity, sexual orientation, ancestry or disability. Candidates must demonstrate an interest in leadership by showing examples of where they have taken initiative at school and within their communities. The selection process includes an interview and all applicants will be notified by mail regarding selection.

Selected members participate in monthly meetings, must attend one board meeting of the Salinas Valley Fair, and assist with special projects throughout the year. An average student will commit about 3 hours a month to the JFB leadership program and must be available to work during the annual fair May 17-20, 2018 in King City.

Applications for the Salinas Valley Fair Junior Fair Board must be received by Friday, October 13th. Applications are online at www.SalinasValleyFair.com and should be mailed to Salinas Valley Fair, 625 Division Street, King City 93930.
