1. Open to residents of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Plumas, Sutter, Tehama, and Yuba Counties.

2. An item eligible for entry should be entered into the most appropriate Department, Division and Class. Any exhibit not properly entered may be transferred to its proper class by Fair Management, whose decision may be changed only by the Judge. Fair Management is NOT responsible for locating entry errors. No exhibitor shall be entitled to an award which has been disallowed as a result of his/her own error. Exhibits that are not entered in the appropriate Department, Division and Class may be disqualified by the Judge.

3. There is no limit as to the number of entries per exhibitor per class, unless limits are stated in Division/Class information. However, no exhibitor shall receive more than two cash awards in any one class using the American system of judging system. (See State Rules).

4. Variety of products must be adequately and correctly labeled.

5. Nut divisions must be from the last crop, approx. one pound.

6. Entries are shown at the owner's risk.

7. State & Local Rules apply to all entries.

The quality desired in agricultural and horticultural product exhibits is the quality that brings the best financial return in the commercial market, and such exhibits must be at least equal in maturity as that state of ripeness required by Section 42513 of the Food and Agriculture Code in order to be considered for premium awards.

> SECTION 42513: "Mature" means having reached that stage of ripeness which will ensure the completion of the ripening process to a degree which will ensure palatability, after the removal of the product from the tree, plant or vine.
>
> SECTION 42515: "Overripe" means having an advanced state of maturity which causes the product to be undesirable for human consumption in a fresh state.

FLORAL ARRANGEMENT RULES:

1. Open to residents of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Plumas, Sutter, Tehama, and Yuba Counties. Open to amateurs only.

2. An item eligible for entry should be entered into the most appropriate Department, Division and Class. Any exhibit not properly entered may be transferred to its proper class by Fair Management, whose decision may be changed only by the Judge. Fair Management is NOT responsible for locating entry errors. No exhibitor shall be entitled to an award which has been disallowed as a result of his/her own error. Exhibits that are not entered in the appropriate Department, Division and Class may be disqualified by the Judge.

3. There is no limit as to the number of entries per exhibitor per class, unless limits are stated in Division/Class information. However, no exhibitor shall receive more than two cash awards in any one class using the American system of judging system. (See State Rules).

4. Fresh flowers or plant material must be used in all classes unless otherwise specified.

5. In all arrangement classes, figurines or dry material may be used as accessories unless otherwise specified. Use of heirlooms or valuable items is discouraged. Exhibitors using special background, driftwood, figurines, etc. must furnish adequate support of the same. Failure to comply with this may result in loss of premiums paid.

6. Entries are shown at the owner's risk. Use of heirlooms or valuable accessories is discouraged.

7. The exhibitor must furnish their own container. Containers must hold water with no leaks. If your container does not hold water, it will be removed from the flower show.

8. ARRANGEMENTS: We request you leave your arrangement for as long as possible during the Fair rather than removing it each day. Fair staff may remove arrangements if they become unsightly.

9. Exhibitors are to place arrangements in the designated area the way the exhibitor wants the judge to view the arrangement. Arrangements WILL NOT BE MOVED until after judging.

10. State and Local Rules apply to all entries.
