1. A limit of 10 contestants allowed. All contestants must be registered before the contest. Contest spots will be filled in the order entries are received. A contestant standby list will be created in case there are any drop outs or no-shows. In the event of no-shows and no standby contestants, we will accept a walk up from the crowd, provided they fill out a registration form before the contest.
3. Junior Contestants will have 6 Minutes to eat (including swallowing) as many corndogs as possible.
Adult Contestants will have 8 minutes to eat (including swallowing) as many corndogs as possible.
- Entire corndog (minus the stick) must be consumed in order to be counted.
- The sticks of the fully eaten corndogs will be counted for results.
4. All corndog sticks must be completely removed and placed on the plate before consuming any corndog. No stick may be placed in the mouth.
5. No utensils are allowed. Contestants may use hands only.
6. No outside food or drink is allowed. Water will be provided by the contest, along with the contestant's choice of a Ketchup or Mustard condiment.
7. Any contestant who vomits, chokes, appears in distress, or cannot continue safely will be pulled from the contest and disqualified. Please compete carefully.
8. Judges may stop the contest for any contestant at any time for health or safety reasons. All judges' decisions are final.
9. In the event of a tie, judges will hold a brief tiebreaker. Tiebreaker rules will be explained at that time.
10. By participating, contestants agree to follow all contest rules and any verbal directions from judges and event staff.
