PEE WEE CHAMPIONSHIP

- Limited to youth age 5 prior to the opening day of fair and up to 8 years of age on January 1st of this year and who are not entered into another showmanship class (See State Rule VII Junior Department #12).
- Animals may be shown by exhibitor in breeding lots.
- Non-castrated males over six months old will not be allowed.
- Pee wee exhibitors and parents are subject to all the livestock rules.
- Due to increased entries and safety issues, Pee Wee Rounds will be held before each specie overall showmanship class. The top two winners in each specie will participate in the overall Pee Wee Championship on Saturday.
- Animals must be brought in on the regular exhibitor schedule and times. Exhibitor may be stalled with siblings or club in which they are affiliated if agreeable by all parties. Animals will not leave the fair until scheduled on Sunday after 8:00 PM.
- Animals do not have to be owned by the exhibitor. They may use an animal that is already on the grounds and owned by another exhibitor.
- Livestock Superintendent will provide further instructions to those that participate in the Pee Wee Championship Show.

Pee Wee Showmanship classes are signed up under the Species (Junior Department).
