Fair Report: All contracts for the grandstands have been confirmed. There will be educational chicken exhibits in the small animal livestock barn to replace the poultry, due to poultry and dairy ban. The fair will still allow egg exhibits. There will be a craft center for people to create a chicken and get judged on it.

Old Business:

1. Status of Collections. Small claims action filed against Shane Oakley. He has reached out and claims a check has been sent via the mail. Regardless if the balance is paid prior to court judgement, he will be banned from future fair auctions.
2. Fair Projects. Mike is working on the wash racks and it will be done by the fair. Mireya Masson made a motion to purchase a memorial bench for Jim Scala to be placed at the senior livestock barn, seconded by Julie Mercier. Motion carried.
3. Show works software update. It should be ready by the second week in June. JLAC still needs to purchase Laptop and iPad, pending availability of iPad from Cliff.
4. RFID. The sheep and goat tags have RFID and the cattle do not need it, just an eartag ID.

New Business:

1. Tax Return. An extension was filed and AGT will prepare the taxes. Darrin reached out to get a full copy of last year's return. Darrin received a letter regarding the penalty, still without explanation but a lower amount for the penalty.
2. Buyers Packet. The board will go through the packet at the June meeting. Consideration voiced about handing out the dinner and breakfast tickets at the trailer instead of sending them via the mail.
3. USDA Carcass Grading. Cattlemans will be doing their ultrasound data contest. Jean Wood made a motion to exclude USDA Carcass data, seconded by Jennifer Harrison. Motion Carried.
4. Other. Auctiontime will do the online Auction, Garronlee Sound will be used for the video.

Adjournment:

The meeting was adjourned at 6:27 pm. The next meeting will be June 19, 2025, at 5:30 pm at the Law Office of Darrin Mercier.
