“HOW TO GET TO AUCTION--THE RIGHT WAY” AN EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR FOR ALL JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

YREKA – On March 19th Siskiyou Golden Fair junior livestock exhibitors have the opportunity to gain needed knowledge and information about getting market animals to the annual junior livestock auction using industry approved practices.

The Siskiyou Golden Fair will present “How to Get to Auction--the Right Way”. This program will include a presentation from award winning livestock judge and Sunglo Feed representative Frank Ward, Animal Health presented by Amy Fousek D.V.M and any new information about 2020 fair. This seminar will address the information needed to complete quality assurance training for all junior livestock exhibitors. The information presented will be beneficial for parents and leaders as well as the junior exhibitors and give a great overview and offer a question and answer period for exhibitors to get specific questions answered.

Quality Assurance is a mandatory annual State mandated program again this year and all junior market animal exhibitors must take the Siskiyou Golden Fair State approved seminar or online using the YQCA online program.

The 2020 Siskiyou Golden Fair “Seeing is Believing” will run August 12th-16th in Yreka. For more information call the fair office at 530-842-2767, or e-mail at info@sisqfair.com.
