

2023 ST. CHARLES COUNTY FAIR LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

General Rules

Registration

- 1) All livestock entries must be submitted online through www.stcharlescofair.org website. Payment for entry fees/exhibitor season pass must be made using Visa, MasterCard or Discover. Entries will be accepted starting June 1, 2023 and ending June 15, 2023 at 9:00 p.m. A late fee of $40.00 will be assessed for entries received after 9:00 p.m. on June 15, 2023 through June 22, 2023. No entries will be accepted after June 22, 2023 at 9:00 p.m.
- 2) Entry fees must be paid via online to complete online entries: $4.00 per head for beef ($1.00 of entry fee will go towards the Beef Checkoff). $2.00 per head for Goats, Sheep and Swine; $1.00 per head for Rabbits, Poultry and Waterfowl except for entries that are pens of 3. The entry fee pays for the insurance.
 - a. Any animal that may possibly be shown at the fair, must be registered and entry fee paid. This includes a “back-up” animal in case something happens to the animal originally intended to be shown. This “back-up” animal must have attended spring weigh-in.
- 3) Liability Insurance for all livestock exhibits is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
- 4) All livestock exhibitors must purchase an Exhibitor Season Pass at $15.00. The Exhibitor season pass must be picked up along with exhibitor t-shirt on setup day, July 22, 2023. T-Shirt and Pass Pick up will be after setup is complete, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.
- 5) All livestock exhibitors are required to assist on Saturday, July 22, 2023 with set up and at the final clean up on Sunday, July 30, 2023.
- 6) Only members of a St. Charles County 4-H club or FFA program may exhibit with the following exceptions:
 - a. 4-H or FFA members in Warren, Franklin, and Lincoln counties may exhibit in Beef and Sheep breeding stock.
 - b. 4-H or FFA members from Warren and Franklin counties may exhibit in Breeding Rabbits.
- 7) Livestock entries will be limited to 4-H and FFA members that are enrolled in the projects in which they exhibit. Exhibitors must be event eligible in their 4-H club or FFA chapter to exhibit livestock. If an exhibitor has been banned from participation in any other fair in the state of Missouri for the current or previous year, they are also banned from participation in the St. Charles County Fair, Inc.

- 8) All livestock exhibitors must have a current Missouri Youth Show-Me Quality Assurance Certification.

Superintendent Expectations

- 9) The department superintendent will assign all stalls/pens.
- 10) Please refer to each specific animal department for entry times and release times! All exceptions must be approved by superintendents.
- 11) Superintendents and/or their assistants are to be on duty when exhibits arrive in their departments and remain in charge of the department until all exhibits have been claimed or moved by owners.
- 12) Each superintendent, or one or more of their assistants, shall supervise the daily morning clean up.
- 13) Each livestock superintendent is charged with caring for and returning the computer class list of their department to the Livestock Office located above the stage in Show Barn. Department superintendents must check on the exhibits in each class, and mark the computer class list showing which animals were exhibited in each class and which were awarded premiums.
- 14) After all entries are made the superintendent will be in charge of the computer class list. The judge or judges must not have access to the computer list until after the awards are made in each class.
- 15) As soon as possible after judging is completed in a department, the department superintendent shall turn the computer class list into the Livestock Office located above the stage in the Show Barn.

Exhibitor Expectations

- 16) Livestock Exhibitors Responsibility:
 - a. All exhibitors must keep stalls and/or pens in a clean and neat condition and the space over which visitors will pass must be kept clean and clear of rubbish at all times. No excessive hay, straw or feed in aisle ways. Any exhibitor not keeping proper care of animal(s) and stalls/pens and helping with clean up after release of livestock will forfeit premium.
 - b. Each livestock exhibitor must furnish their own water buckets and feed troughs.
 - c. Livestock exhibitors must bring their own supply of feed.
- 17) No use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs by youth exhibitors will be tolerated. Exhibitors will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money.
- 18) Exhibitors and parents agree to abide by all St. Charles County Fair Rules & Regulations. (A copy of the Rules and Regulations is available at the St. Charles County Extension Center or Fair website). Any person who violates any of the forgoing or special rules will forfeit all privileges and premium and be subjected to such penalty as the management may order.

- 19) The St. Charles County Fair Board and Livestock Auction Committee have set forth the following Dress Code for all livestock exhibitors. Exhibitors showing and selling their animals in the livestock Auction should adhere to the following show attire:
- a. Long pants (no shorts or baggy pants are to be worn). Underwear should not be seen.
 - b. St. Charles County Fair exhibitor t-shirt, 4-H or FFA shirt or a nice collared shirt or polo shirt. NO crop top, strapless top or “spaghetti” strap shirt will be allowed. No cleavage may be showing.
 - c. No commercial logos, other than 4-H, FFA or St. Charles County Fair, or offensive slogans (drug, alcohol, tobacco, or sexually explicit) on hats or shirts will be permitted. Shirts or hats with family farm names are acceptable.
 - d. Exhibitors must wear closed toe, hard soled shoes, preferably boots or leather shoes. Tennis shoes are discouraged. NO sandals or flip flops will be allowed.

General Rules

- 20) Auction earnings and premium checks will be issued at 10:00am on Sunday, July 30, 2023 at the Livestock Office, checks will not be issued prior to Sunday after clean-up is complete.
- a. If an exhibitor does not pick up their check on clean up day, it will be mailed. However, if that check is lost in the mail and the exhibitor does not receive it, $25.00 will be deducted from a new check to cover the Bank Stop Payment charges.
 - b. Exhibitors taking their animals to the State Fair will not receive their check until that animal has been taken to the Processor and the buyer is notified (unless the animal was floored at the auction).
- 21) Animals must be shown by the exhibitor listed in the online registration form or by a sibling of the exhibitor with permission from the superintendent. No other exhibitors will be allowed to show this animal. The transfer of registration to a sibling will only occur in the case of:
- a. animal death
 - b. all animals registered to the exhibitor are underweight
- 22) Animals must be groomed by the owner. The owner can be assisted by a St. Charles County 4-H or FFA member or an immediate family member.
- 23) When there is only one exhibitor competing for a premium, the premium will be awarded according to the merits of the exhibit(s) and the opinion of the judge. In addition, a champion trophy will be awarded according to the judges discretion.
- 24) Any attempt by any exhibitor, either personally or through an agent, to corrupt the judge or exert undue influence will subject the offender to expulsion from the grounds, and they will thereafter be prohibited from exhibiting or other privileges until the same are restored by written order of the Fair Board.

- 25) Unnatural practices of any kind will not be tolerated. If any animal is found to have been tampered with it shall be disqualified from competition. This does not apply to polishing and training of horns and hoofs.
- 26) A minimum of a 28-day withdrawal period for all medicines will be observed by all animals. (If an animal has been treated with a medication that has a longer withdrawal period, then the prescribed withdrawal time must be observed.)
- 27) If an animal dies prior to the fair, substitutions of eligible animals may be permitted at the discretion of the department superintendent(s).
 - a. If the exhibitor substitutes an animal without the knowledge of the superintendent, all premiums and sale proceeds will be forfeited to the St. Charles County Fair, Inc. as liquidated damages and the exhibitor and his/ her immediate family may be banned from participation in future years at the discretion of the Fair Board.
- 28) If an animal dies during the fair, the insured animals will not be replaced. They will be given the insurance premium of the market price of the animal. If the animal is not a covered animal under the insurance policy, animals can be replaced with the same species of like characteristics under the direction of the species superintendent.
- 29) An official veterinarian will be on the grounds to inspect animals upon arrival.
- 30) Any animal disqualified for age or health reasons must leave the fairgrounds and cannot be replaced by another animal.
- 31) Sale signs allowed for breeding stock only. Exhibitors must check with the department superintendent before displaying signs.

The Alex Boschert Memorial Market Steer Award & Market Hog Award

Alex Boschert memorial steer and hog award is given in memory of Alex Boschert who passed away in 2017. Alex grew up in a 4-H family, showing steers and hogs at the fair. Alex truly loved the fair. Even after graduating from 4-H Alex volunteered his time to help out at the fair. He had joined the fair board just months before his death. Alex never had the best of everything, but he made the best of what he had & was proud of the animals that he showed. Alex knew the value of hard work, agriculture and volunteering for his community- all things he learned while in 4-H. Alex's patient, strong and willing spirit are missed at the fair each year, but his memory will live on through this award.

One beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor will be chosen. The $75 cash award and plaque recipients will be announced at the fair.

The one beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor who meet these qualifications and stands out in the requirements will be chosen for the Alex Boschert Memorial Award:

1. Exhibitor must have participated in all pre fair set up
2. Exhibitor must be a 4-H member eligible to show in the St. Charles County Fair
3. Exhibitor must take pride in their exhibit
4. Exhibitor must be willing to share their learned skills with other members
5. Exhibitor must be present throughout the fair and willing to lend a hand wherever needed
