Superintendent Expectations

- The department superintendent will assign all stalls/pens.
- Please refer to each specific animal department for entry times and release times! All exceptions must be approved by superintendents.
- Superintendents and/or their assistants are to be on duty when exhibits arrive in their departments and remain in charge of the department until all exhibits have been claimed or moved by owners.
- Each superintendent, or one or more of their assistants, shall supervise the daily morning clean-up.
- Each livestock superintendent is charged with caring for and returning the computer class list of their department to the Livestock Office located above the stage in Show Barn. Department superintendents must check on the exhibits in each class and mark the computer class list showing which animals were exhibited in each class and which were awarded premiums.

- After all entries are made the superintendent will be in charge of the computer class list. The judge or judges must not have access to the computer list until after the awards are made in each class.
- As soon as possible after judging is completed in a department, the department superintendent shall turn the computer class list into the Livestock Office located above the stage in the Show Barn.

Livestock Exhibitor Responsibility:

- All livestock exhibitors must have a current Missouri Youth Show-Me Quality Assurance Certification.
- Keep stalls/pens in a clean and neat condition.
- No excessive hay/straw/feed in aisle ways.
- Any exhibitor not keeping proper care of animal(s) and stalls/pens and helping with clean up after release of livestock will forfeit premium.
- Furnish their own water buckets and feed troughs.
- Bring their own supply of feed.
- Animals must be groomed by the owner. The owner can be assisted by a St. Charles County 4-H or FFA member or an immediate family member.
- No use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs by youth exhibitors will be tolerated.
- Exhibitors and parents agree to abide by all St. Charles County Fair Rules & Regulations. (A copy of the Rules and Regulations is available at the St. Charles County Extension Center or Fair website).
- Liability Insurance for all livestock exhibits is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
- Livestock entries will be limited to 4-H and FFA members that are enrolled in the projects in which they exhibit.
- Exhibitors must be eligible in their 4-H club or FFA chapter to exhibit livestock. If an exhibitor has been banned from participation in any other fair in the state of Missouri for the current or previous year, they are also banned from participation in the St. Charles County Fair, Inc.

Dress Code for livestock shows and livestock auction -

- Long pants (no shorts or baggy pants are to be worn). Underwear should not be seen.
- St. Charles County Fair exhibitor t-shirt, 4-H or FFA shirt or a nice, collared shirt or polo shirt. NO crop top, strapless top or "spaghetti" strap shirt will be allowed. No cleavage may be showing.
- No commercial logos, other than 4-H, FFA or St. Charles County Fair, or offensive slogans (drug, alcohol, tobacco, or sexually explicit) on hats or shirts will be permitted. Shirts or hats with family farm names are acceptable.

- Exhibitors must wear closed toe, hard soled shoes, preferably boots or leather shoes. Tennis shoes are discouraged. NO sandals or flip flops will be allowed.
- If an exhibitor has been banned from participation in any other fair in the state of Missouri for the current or previous year, they are also banned from participation in the St. Charles County Fair, Inc.
- Animals must be shown by the exhibitor listed in the online registration form or by a sibling of the exhibitor with permission from the superintendent. No other exhibitors will be allowed to show this animal. The transfer of registration to a sibling will only occur in the case of:
 - Animal death
 - All animals registered to the exhibitor are underweight
- Any person who violates any of the foregoing or special rules will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money. As well as being subjected to such a penalty as the management may order.

General Rules

- When there is only one exhibitor competing for a premium, the premium will be awarded according to the merits of the exhibit(s) and the opinion of the judge. In addition, a champion trophy will be awarded according to the judge's discretion.
- Any attempt by any exhibitor, either personally or through an agent, to corrupt the judge or exert undue influence will subject the offender to expulsion from the grounds, and they will thereafter be prohibited from exhibiting or other privileges until the same are restored by written order of the Fair Board.
- Unnatural practices of any kind will not be tolerated. If any animal is found to have been tampered with it shall be disqualified from competition. This does not apply to polishing and training of horns and hoofs.
- A minimum 28-day withdrawal period for all medicines will be observed by all animals. (If an animal has been treated with a medication that has a longer withdrawal period, then the prescribed withdrawal time must be observed.)
- If an animal dies prior to the fair, substitutions of eligible animals may be permitted at the discretion of the department superintendent(s).
- If the exhibitor substitutes an animal without the knowledge of the superintendent, all premiums and sale proceeds will be forfeited to the St. Charles County Fair, Inc. as liquidated damages and the exhibitor and their immediate family may be banned from participation in future years at the discretion of the Fair Board.
- If an animal dies during the fair, the insured animals will not be replaced. They will be given the insurance premium of the market price of the animal. If the animal is not a covered animal under the insurance policy, animals can be replaced with the same species of like characteristics under the direction of the species superintendent.

NOTE: All families and exhibitors must adhere to ALL rules listed in this document.

- An official veterinarian will be on the grounds to inspect animals upon arrival.
- Any animal disqualified for age or health reasons must leave the fairgrounds and cannot be replaced by another animal.
- Sale signs allowed for breeding stock only. Exhibitors must check with the department superintendent before displaying signs.
- Any person who violates any of the foregoing or special rules will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money. As well as being subjected to such a penalty as the management may order.

LIVESTOCK AUCTION

- The sale order is generated by the livestock software program.
- The Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion per livestock group will be sold first at the beginning of each livestock group.
- The exhibitor will indicate to the superintendent if they wish to sell an animal at the auction.
- Each exhibitor may sell, at most, one animal in the livestock auction. If an animal is awarded Grand or Reserve Champion, the animal must be sold. Otherwise, the exhibitor is allowed to choose whether to sell an animal. In cases where an exhibitor is showing more than one animal:
 - If no animals are awarded Grand or Reserve Champion: the exhibitor may choose only one animal to sell, but is not required to sell any animal
 - If only one animal is awarded Grand or Reserve Champion: this animal must be sold
 - If more than one animal is awarded Grand or Reserve Champion: the exhibitor must choose one (and only one) of the Grand or Reserve Champion animals to sell
- Any changes in destinations must be submitted to Tim Snyders by 5:00 p.m. on Friday evening following the auction.
- The St. Charles County Fair, Inc. shall retain 2% of the sale price for future upgrades and additions to the show barn and other livestock barns, equipment, and livestock auction expenses. Each livestock exhibitor will receive a photograph taken with the buyer.
- Exhibitors are welcome and encouraged to send letters to potential buyers inviting them to attend the livestock auction at 7:00 p.m. ONLY previous buyers (from the past 2 years) will receive an invitation letter to the livestock auction from the livestock auction committee that will also include 2 passes to enter the fairgrounds and 2 dinner and drink tickets.
- Any person who violates any of the foregoing or special rules will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money. As well as being subjected to such a penalty as the management may order.

The Alex Boschert Memorial Market Steer Award & Market Hog Award

Alex Boschert memorial steer and hog award is given in memory of Alex Boschert who passed away in 2017. Alex grew up in a 4-H family, showing steers and hogs at the fair. Alex truly loved the fair. Even after graduating from 4-H Alex volunteered his time to help out at the fair. He had joined the fair board just months before his death. Alex never had the best of everything, but he made the best of what he had & was proud of the animals that he showed. Alex knew the value of hard work, agriculture and volunteering for his community- all things he learned while in 4-H. Alex's patient, strong and willing spirit are missed at the fair each year, but his memory will live on through this award.

One beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor will be chosen. The $75 cash award and plaque recipients will be announced at the fair.

The one beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor who meet these qualifications and stands out in the requirements will be chosen for the Alex Boschert Memorial Award:

- Exhibitor must have participated in all pre fair set up

MARY FERGUSON MEMORIAL POULTRY AWARD

The Mary Ferguson Memorial Poultry Award is given in memory of Mary Ferguson who passed away in 2001. Mary and her husband, Daryl, were faithful supporters of the Poultry Project. Mary was always there to help her grandchildren, as well as other youth and adults. Mary truly loved all kinds of poultry from the fluffy baby chicks to the not so neat market chickens. Mary's quiet, gentle nature will be missed, but her memory will live on through this award. The $25.00 award recipient will be announced at the fair.

- 1) Exhibitor must show a real interest in his or her poultry.
- 2) Exhibitor must be a 1st or 2nd year poultry member.
- 3) Exhibitor must have participated in all pre-fair set up.
- 4) Exhibitor must be a 4-H or FFA member eligible to show in the St. Charles County Fair
- 5) Exhibitor must have worked well with others, both youth and adults.
