RHINESTONES AT THE RODEO

Cowgirls selected as 2018 St. Paul Rodeo Royal Court

St. Paul, Ore. (October 19, 2017) Three young women have been chosen as the Royal Court for the 2018 St. Paul Rodeo.

Tess Scott, McMinnville, Ore., Maddie Coleman, St. Paul, and Alexis Goughnour, St. Paul, have been selected to serve as queen and princesses.

Scott, a 2014 graduate of McMinnville High School, is the queen for the St. Paul Rodeo. She is a senior at Oregon State University, where she is studying agricultural sciences with a minor in crops science. At Oregon State, Tess is involved in Sigma Alpha, Steer-A-Year, and Crops Science Club. She is the daughter of Tom and Theresa Scott.

Coleman, a graduate of Sweet Briar (Va.) College, is a student at Oregon State pursuing a doctor of pharmacy degree. While at Sweet Briar, she was a member of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, the American National Riding Commission equestrian team, and she led science outreach activities for community youth. She is the daughter of Michael and Gail Coleman.

Goughnour is a senior at St. Paul High School. In high school, she is active in the Oregon High School Equestrian Team, FFA, DECA, and National Honor Society. She plays varsity volleyball and has served as the vice-president and president of her 4-H club. She is the daughter of Matt and Cori Goughnour.

The St. Paul Rodeo Royal Court was selected earlier this month from a group of horsewomen who demonstrated their skills, knowledge and expertise in horsemanship, current events, and other topics. They will represent the rodeo at various appearances and functions throughout the year, including the Rose Parade and Starlight Parade, Ag Fest, the Joseph and Pendleton rodeo parades, and various other events in the Willamette Valley. They are ambassadors of the St. Paul Rodeo, exhibiting goodwill and enthusiasm as they educate others about rodeo.

The 2018 St. Paul Rodeo is July 3-7. Tickets will be available in December. For more information, visit the website at www.StPaulRodeo.com or the Facebook page.
