

Memories of Debra Baden Drange

My family and I will always remember looking for the Winter Carnival Treasure medallion when we were growing up. Our parents would read each clue to us and then get us dressed up warm to go out and begin our search. Even after marriage our families would call grandma on the phone, read her the clue and ask, “where do you think we should start looking” Wonderful memories that have continued. This picture was posted in the Pioneer Press on January 31, 1962 after the third clue of the Winter Carnival Treasure hunt: “ANOTHER CHECK on the clues is made by the Baden Family before starting intensive search of an area for the treasure medallion. The family is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Baden, Roseville, and their Children, Debby, 6, David, 5, and Mark, 10.” (the other three children were at home sick). We were at Como Park searching.
