

Memories of Kari Dunn, Mom of Colton Dunn McHenry

In 1992 my son Colton Dunn McHenry was crowned King Frost. He had a great time riding in parades and representing St. Anthony Park. Colton went on to become a comic writer and actor in Hollywood. He was a writer for MADTV, and Key and Peele. He was a regular on Superstore and has appeared in several comedy movies. Being King Frost was really his first introduction to the spotlight.
