*Please note that we are not responsible for crops & vegetables that are delivered on Wednesday and have deteriorated past their prime by judging time on Thursday. Judges will be instructed to rate entries on their condition at the time of judging and will not be told which items were delivered Wednesday & which were delivered on Thursday. *Items not picked up by noon of Wednesday Oct 4th will be discarded.

Please review all information in the Competition Guide before entering items in the competition.

Delivery instructions and maps will be provided online and by emails to those who share an email address.

Enter on-line at www.statefairva.org. Mail-in entries may be sent to State Fair of Virginia, Horticulture, 13191 Dawn Blvd., Doswell, VA 23047. Faxed entries will not be accepted. Tags will be picked up at delivery of products.

Guidelines:

1. All State Fair General Rules and Crops and Vegetables Department Rules apply. By making an entry, you agree to read and abide by these rules. Competitors must be age 5 to 18 as of September 1.
2. An email will be sent to all exhibitors who provide an email address reminding them of instructions for delivery. Tags will be held until delivery of items.
- 3 Each entry shall be composed of specimens of only one variety or strain except where indicated. All vegetable and fruit specimens should be mature. All fruit and vegetables should be in their natural state. No waxing or altering the product in any way will be allowed. Please enter the name and the plant variety in the “description” field online or paper entry form.
4. All produce must be grown by an individual competitor (no groups or teams) during the current calendar year, unless otherwise specified.
5. A competitor shall be permitted to make only one entry in each class, but may enter in as many individual classes as desired.
6. The Fair assumes no responsibility in case of loss or damage to exhibits.
7. No crops may be removed until release time and must be checked out with Superintendent. Tag stubs (claim checks) must be presented before entries are released.
8. Prize-winning exhibits removed by the competitor prior to the official release time will forfeit monetary awards.
9. It is the competitor’s responsibility to pick up or dispose of entries. After the last scheduled pick-up time, all remaining products will be considered abandoned and the Fair will in no way be responsible for them.
10. Perishable products may be removed from display by the Superintendent after judging if the product reaches a state of decomposition.

All entries are subject to spraying with fire retardant, as required by the Fire Marshall.

Division 13: Special Contests

Vegetable Come Alive! Get a durable vegetable (something that will not likely rot, sitting out at the Fair for 10 days!) Deck it out to make it look like it is a living creature. Maybe like a person or an animal. Any materials may be used. For this contest only, a purchased vegetable may be used as well. The Vegetable creature must be constructed by the youth.

Class 1301: Ages 5 – 12

Class 1302: Ages 13 – 18

(Ages as of Sept 1.)

Corn Creation Contest:

Construct an amazing corn creation utilizing any parts of a dried corn plant (cob, husk, stalk, silk, roots...) The corn parts do not need to be grown by the contestant, but the creativity and construction should be the contestant. Adults may help and supervise for class 1303 where any danger is involved such as in cutting.

Class 1303: Ages 5 – 12

Class 1304: Ages 13 – 18 (Ages as of Sept. 1)

Scarecrow Contest: Enter as an individual as a family or as a club or group. $50 premium award for the scarecrow chosen as BEST by fairgoers!

Enter in the Open Crops and Vegetables under Division 14 and class 1401 ***

RULES: All scarecrows entries must be the following:

- Must be Free-standing/Anchored
- All scarecrows must be suitable for viewing by all members of the community and the Fair has the right to disqualify any deemed inappropriate for public display
- All scarecrows will be displayed in the Horticulture Pavilion (therefore entries may be limited)
- Only entries created in the current Fair year will be accepted
- Cannot exceed a height of 6ft. and a width of 4ft.
- Animatronic/electric parts not permitted
- Any limbs, accessories, etc. must be securely fastened
- Open to all ages, however only one entry per household

JUDGING: This is a People's choice contest. Voters will be able to choose their overall favorite. Ballots and ballot boxes will be located in the Horticulture Pavilion. Winners will be announced and notified by the Tuesday after the Fair (Tuesday, October 3rd), by email and Facebook.
