SPECIFIC RULES GOVERNING WOODCARVING:

1. All entries must be carved from wood by the entrant from start to finish. (No golf balls, bowling balls, gourds, leather, antlers, animal bones, etc.). Leaves, vines, flowers must be hand formed but glass eyes, driftwood may be used. Cast or molded feet and class projects may be entered in Novice and Intermediate but NOT in Open. Judges will take into consideration, originality, workmanship, and finish to determine the ranking for each lot or category.
2. The term "carving" is a general heading and embraces sculpture and whittling as specified.
3. Due to limited space, items should be no taller than 30", no wider than 20", and no deeper than 20" (Larger items may be entered by permission of the Director, as space provides.)
4. Only two entries per lot allowed per exhibitor.
5. Exhibitor may enter only one class: Open, Intermediate, Novice
6. No Intarsia pieces may be entered into this Dept.
7. All entries must have been made within the last 2 years.

OPEN CLASS - Anyone who competes above the Intermediate level. Anyone who has won Best of Show in Intermediate in the past 10 years. Anyone who teaches woodcarving above the beginner level or anyone wishing to compete at this level. Anyone that has won Best of Intermediate. All entries must be original works of the entrant, no class projects or copies of class projects.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS - Anyone competing above the Novice level and those that have previously won Best of Novice at the Tennessee Valley Fair.

NOVICE CLASS - Carvers that carve at the novice level and have not won Best of Show at the Tennessee Valley Fair. If a piece wins Best of Show or 1st place, that piece cannot be re-entered.

JUDGING GUIDELINES - each of the following will be considered equally:

- 1 - Shape and Form
- 2 - Worthiness and/or Decorative Value
- 3 - Construction and Workmanship
- 4 - Finishing
