SPECIAL RULES

PLEASE NOTE: THERE ARE TWO LEAD LINE COMPETITIONS
– SPECIAL RULES APPLY: SEE #7 –

1. Open to all registered breeds of sheep; only ewes any age to be used.
2. READ GENERAL RULES. All entries and awards within this show will be subject to the General Rules and Regulations published in this Premium Book.
3. PRE-JUDGING. All garments, on hangers and labeled with contestant name and age division, are to be brought to the livestock office by 8:30am and checked in. Garments will be released by 11:30am, if not before. The PA system will keep contestants posted.
4. The purpose of this competition is to present a class of prize sheep in the most attractive manner possible, where spectators gain a true sense of the versatility and beauty of wool, and share in our commitment to the dual purpose and wool breeds of sheep.
5. Entrants must wear a garment of 100% wool or wool-blend of at least 80% wool and furnish their own garments. No Lead Line outfits allowed from previous years. In case of a tie, handmade construction will be given extra consideration, however final placings will be at discretion of the judges. Contestants will lead a ewe over six months of age that must be under control and presented in the most attractive manner possible. The pair should enhance each other. NO Rams.
6. An entry consists of a $5 fee, accompanied by the class number, contestant's name, age, and mailing address. Entries received by August 15 will receive two passes by mail. The committee has the right to edit the commentaries. Commentaries can be emailed to Emmie at emmie.miniter@gmail.com. Post entries are accepted.
7. ENTRANTS MAY EXHIBIT BOTH WEEKS BUT MUST USE TWO COMPLETELY DIFFERENT OUTFITS AND SHEEP.
8. Eastern States Exposition offers the following premiums:
