THE E STAGE BRINGS FRESH NEW LINEUP OF ARTISTS TO THE BIG E
Daily Performances, September 13-29

Eastern States Exposition is thrilled to announce an electrifying lineup for The E Stage this year, featuring 43 original bands and musicians set to perform throughout The Big E, September 13-29. The E Stage promises to deliver an unforgettable musical experience, showcasing a diverse range of genres and talent from across the region and beyond. Daily performances are 3 and 7pm, Monday-Thursday, and 12:30, 4:30 and 8:30pm, Friday-Sunday. Shows at The E Stage are free with admission to The Big E.

The E Stage, located near the Flag Plaza, was developed to showcase emerging artists dedicated to creating original music. Attendees will enjoy a vibrant mix of performers throughout the run of the Fair ensuring there is something for every music lover. The E Stage has always been a hub for discovering new talent, and this year's lineup continues that tradition with a fresh and dynamic roster of artists ready to make their mark.

"We are incredibly excited about the variety and quality of performers we have lined up for The E Stage this year," said John Juliano of Mellowship Entertainment, talent buyers and entertainment program managers for The Big E. "Our goal is to provide a platform for local emerging bands to reach a wider audience, and we believe our guests will be delighted with the talent on display."

Featured artists include:

Sláinte – September 13, 8:30pm

Sláinte is a six-piece Irish-American folk rock band, formed in a Boston College dorm room in 2013. They play upbeat arrangements of classic Irish pub songs and American Rock & Roll, marrying rockin' electric guitar and sax solos with traditional fiddle and whistle parts.

Hello Sister – September 14, 8:30pm

Driven by multi-talented teen siblings, Hello Sister is a Pop Rock band that combines authentic homegrown musicianship with dynamic, high-energy performances and a unique, infectious sound.

JULAI and the Serotones – September 18, 7pm

JULAI and the Serotones are an eight-piece powerhouse band from Connecticut that bring their high-energy sound to listeners worldwide. The band has appeared on bills with award-winning legends such as Red Hot Chili Peppers, John Mayer, Alanis Morissette, Trey Anastasio, Hozier, Steel Pulse, Gin Blossoms, The Skatalites, Ripe and more.

CATWOLF – September 20, 4:30pm

CATWOLF is a soulful rock trio boosting your spirits with tempo-changing grooves and beaming vocal harmonies. Smooth, sweet, and heavy, the trio charges with their unique flair.
