ZACH WILLIAMS TO PERFORM AT THE BIG E
Cory Asbury of Bethel Music to open the Show

American Christian artist Zach Williams, with special guest Cory Asbury of Bethel Music, will perform Sunday, September 19 at The Big E Arena, sponsored by Truly Hard Seltzer. Tickets go on sale 10am ET, Friday, July 2 at TheBigE.com. Tickets include admission to The Big E when purchased prior to the show date. Asbury will open the show at 7:30pm.

Zach Williams' music pulls from the hard luck truths of Outlaw Country, the dirt-road grit of Southern Rock, the contemporary roots music of Alt-Country artists, and a firm grounding in Classic and Contemporary Christian artists that stretches back to his dad's old vinyl records from the group, Petra.

The Jonesboro, Arkansas-raised and current Nashville, Tennessee-based artist is a renewed man. He's a husband, a father, and has also become one of CCM's leading artists and songwriters by carving a niche with his singular blend of Southern Rock, Country, and faith-filled songwriting, which quickly awarded him his first GRAMMY Award® for his debut album, 2017's "Chain Breaker."

With two additional GRAMMY nods among numerous other accolades, he now returns to share his boldly vulnerable and hope-filled sophomore album, aptly titled "Rescue Story." Released in October 2019, it includes the tracks "Rescue Story" and "There was Jesus" which he recorded with Dolly Parton. Williams and Parton received the Best Contemporary Christian Music Performance/Song GRAMMY for "There was Jesus."

Fueled with a passion to see people encounter the love of the Father, Cory Asbury is a songwriter, singer, speaker, author and worship leader who joined the Bethel Music Collective in May of 2015. Cory is known for his hit single "Reckless Love," a song nominated for a GRAMMY in 2019 after winning two GMA Dove Awards and two K-Love Fan Awards in 2018. After taking a year off to rest with his family in 2019, Cory is back on the scene with new projects, songs, and a deeper revelation of the Father's heart. Cory and his family live in Kalamazoo, Michigan where he serves as a worship pastor and artist in residence.
