

General Rules & Regulations

Entry Deadline: April 18, 2025
Show: May 2-4, 2025

1. Entry Deadline & Fees: Entries are due by April 18, 2025. Late entries (available at check-in) incur an additional $10 per head.
2. Steers and Market Heifers will ALL be shown by weight. Classes will be broke based on numbers at the discretion of show management. There will be NO overall Market Animal Champion.
3. Market Heifers: Heifers may NOT be cross entered in the Breeding and Market Heifer divisions.
4. Registration Papers: Required for all heifers not entered in the crossbred division. Heifers will show by breed then by age.
 - a) If you are showing registered cattle, you must specify the registered breed on the entry.
 - b) Dual registered animals must designate which breed they will be showing at the time of entry.
5. Breeds with at least 4 entries will have their own division, otherwise will show in the ORB division.
 - a) National breed association requirements will be enforced when dividing classes. If the national association mandates separate divisions for percentage and fullblood animals, each must meet the minimum requirement to form its own division.
 - b) If someone wishes to have a breed represented WITHOUT 4 head, they may sponsor the division for $150.
6. Stalling: Exhibitors are encouraged to show off their trailers. The location of trailers to be determined by show management at time of arrival. Exhibitors showing off their trailer must clean up all bedding before departure. Stalls will be assigned in the Mallary Complex, if requested.
7. Tie-Outs: Tie-Outs are provided by the fairgrounds and will be available on a first-come first-served basis.
8. Feed and Bedding: Initial bedding will be provided for those stalling in the Mallary Complex. Exhibitors will need to supply their own bedding for the tie-out area. Straw, shavings and feed will be available for purchase.
9. Camping spots are available for $25 per night.
10. Health Requirements: All animals entering the show grounds must comply with Massachusetts and national animal health regulations. Exhibitors are required to present an official health certificate, issued by a licensed veterinarian dated January 1, 2025, or later.

Any animal showing signs of illness, including but not limited to fever, open wounds, coughing, nasal discharge, ringworm, or warts, may be dismissed from the premises at the discretion of the show officials and/or an on-site health inspector. Exhibitors are responsible for the care and well-being of their animals throughout the event. Failure to comply with these health rules may result in disqualification.
11. The Eastern States Exposition Showring Policy and Code of Ethics applies to all participants. To view the complete policy, visit: Showring Policy and Code of Ethics.
12. Release: Exhibitors may leave upon completion of their showing.
13. Dogs: All dogs must be on a leash at all times.
14. Scooters: Scooters may be used in designated outside areas only.
