Tulelake Butte Valley Fair Junior Livestock Exhibitor Code of Conduct

Exhibiting livestock at the Tulelake Butte Valley Fair is a privilege and must be respected as such. To that end, all junior exhibitors who wish to sell and/or show at the Tulelake Butte Valley Fair must adhere to the Code of Conduct to be eligible to participate in the fair. Violations of the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. Violations may result in the loss of right to sell animal(s) at the auction.

- You will read, understand and follow all the state and local rules and regulations.
- You will refrain from any use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language during the Tulelake Butte Valley Fair. You will also refrain from being in the company of minors who are using alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language.
- You will treat your animals in a safe and kind manner. Animals will have the necessary feed and water the entire time they are on the fairgrounds.
- You will keep the animal pens clean and free of hazards at all times.
- You will treat adults and peers with respect at all times.
- If you are staying in the fair camping area, or visiting friends in the fair camping area, you will abide by all curfews and other camping area rules.
- You will not allow an adult or a youth who is not exibiting in the fair to perform your duties including fitting a animal for show, cleaning pens, feeding or watering. You may exchange duties with fellow club members or fellow junior exhibitors.
- You will not use abusive, questionable, or unethical techniques in the construction, preparations, presentation or handling of your project. You will not resort to fraudulent, deceptive or illegal practices when preparing my project for exhibition. You will also not allow my parent, advisor, supervisor/leader or any other adult or minor to employ such practices to your project.
