Selection of Steers: The number of steers that qualify for the Night of Champions will be based on the total number of steers entered in the show. The order for steers will be Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Breed Champions, and Reserve Breed Champions as placed by the judge. The total number of steers selected per breed is based on the percentage of steers shown. Order for each breed will be held immediately following the selection of the breed champion and reserve breed champion for that breed. For a breed champion to automatically qualify, there must be a minimum of 7 head represented in the breed at the show. If a breed has 7 or more head represented, the number of head that will qualify from that breed will be based on the percentage that breed makes up of the entire show.

Selection of Barrows: The number of barrows that qualify for the Night of Champions will be based on the total number of barrows entered in the show. The number of barrows selected by the judge in each breed for will be on a percentage basis of the total number shown. The minimum number of head for a breed to have at least one animal eligible is equal to the total number of head exhibited, divided by the number of sale spots, and then rounded to the nearest whole number. Breeds that have less than the minimum number of head, but more than 15 will show for breed champion honors only and only the champion will show for order with the crossbreds. Breeds with less than 15 will show as crossbreds.

Selection of Wether Market Lambs: The number of lambs that qualify for the Night of Champions will be based on the total number of lambs entered in the show. The first lamb will be the breed and reserve breed champions of each breed shown. When selecting, the judge shall select all breed champions first, followed by the reserve breed champions. The number of wethers selected by the judge in each breed will be on a percentage basis of the total number shown with a minimum of 2 per breed.

Selection of Wether Meat Goats: The number of goats that qualify for the Night of Champions will be based on the total number of goats entered in the show. The order for wether meat goats will be Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, and Division Champions, as placed by the judge. Remaining order will be selected by the judge. The number of wethers selected by the judge in each division will be on a percentage basis of the total number shown.

Selection of Broilers: The top five Broiler Pen exhibitors will qualify for the Night of Champions.
