CLUES X

1. I was remodeled in 2020 when the antiques left. Turn me to enter and notice what was here originally.
2. We sell iconic Americana styles from the 50s to the 90s. Go around back to see my vintage logo.
3. A bank and sewing machines divide this building that was one in the 50s and 60s. Look up. Can you see the line where two became one in 1954?
4. Once a Ford dealership and now a little bit spicy, I tell you who built this building and when.
5. Coffins were once sold inside, and now there are wings on the side of the building. Look up and you will see a coffin alternative, also used to decorate this building.
6. Everyone wants to know what's inside. I am on the Square, sealed in 1991 to be opened in 2041.
7. I was in the center of everything, and if you look closely, you can see where I used to pool.
8. I tell the story of the original location of the Garland Library, now an open space to play.
