NATCHEZ, Ms. (KNOE) - Heritage Tourism Manager, Roscoe Barnes of Natchez has been awarded the 2023 Humanities Partner Award by the Mississippi Humanities Council (MHC), according to Visit Natchez.

The Humanities Award recognizes an organization or person that collaborates with MHC to reach new audiences.

Barnes will be presented with the award on Mar. 24, 2023, during the Public Humanities Awards Gala at the Two Mississippi Museums in Jackson.

Visit Natchez said in a press release that Barnes has assisted MHC with reaching new audiences by supporting the efforts to preserve the African American history of Natchez and bringing humanities courses to the Wilkinson County Correctional Facility.
