		DATCP Fairs Coordinator, as she shares these bright ideas she's seen during her fair
26		travels.
	8:30-9:30 AM PREPARE TO RESPOND PROGRAM: An animal disease outbreak is a serious threat to public safety, our food, and the economy. Mixing animals and people at livestock events increase the risk for disease outbreaks. This means people who organize, volunteer, and respond to an emergency at livestock events need consistent training to "Prepare2Respond" to an animal disease outbreak. Presented by Marla Calico and Bernie O'Rourke.

		SESSION #12: COMMUNICATING A CRISIS: You might think a crisis can't happen at your fair, but it can happen anywhere. When it comes to a crisis, it isn't if, but when, and how bad. It could be anything: a canceled concert, severe weather, animal activists, angry fairgoers, biosecurity issues, protests the list goes on. On Opening Day of the 2017 Ohio State Fair, a ride malfunctioned resulting in loss of life and injury. Learn about the firestorm of media coverage and the crisis communications strategies employed to put the out the flames. You'll hear about the lessons that were learned, logistics to plan for, where to turn for help, and will take away strategies you can use to ensure a fair of any size is prepared to communicate in the chance of a crisis.
