We offer a variety of formats:

- 20-minute circus shows for smaller space limitations

Cynthia Renee

California native Cynthia Renee is a fierce, hardworking mother of two making her break into the country music genre. Influenced by the styles of Olivia Newton-John and Carrie Underwood, Renee adds her own twang to the standard country sound with a bit of ballads in her music. Her songwriting is based upon the love of her family and firsthand experiences she's had throughout her life. She has traveled all over the U.S. playing shows and has performed the National Anthem at NBA games, fairs, rodeos, and speedways. After signing a record deal with SSM, she is excited for the future in her music career and can't wait to put work on her next project.

In Cynthia Renee's latest single, "Have a Heart for a Hero," she paints a picture of the day in the life of a firefighter, police officer, and even a soldier. The single is an upbeat anthem highlighting first responders and the impact they have on the community.
