The Fair Board reviewed prior day's attendance and receipts. Gate is up 18.6% and income to date is up 27.8%. The fair is running pretty smoothly. Leeson has been writing news releases this week.

Carole Strahan, Check 'n Balance, has been doing an excellent job of getting accurate information to the Board quickly. Weather has been excellent for the fair.

The 4-H dog people have expressed thanks to the Board for relocating the carnival allowing them to spread out a little.

There was a good crowd at the rodeo and also at the Johnny Limbo concert. Washington Federal Savings Bank was pleased with the concert. Washington Federal expressed an interest in working with Hesse for the 1984 fair.

The boy who was hit in the eye by a rock during the destruction derby is doing fine.

Merit Rater Gordon Stanley met with the Fair Board and overall seemed impressed with the fair and fairgrounds. Arts & Crafts Superintendent Joyce Ashmanskas attended the meeting hoping to get another perspective of the Arts & Crafts Building and displays.

Attached are Bentley's notes on Stanley's comments.

The Board thanked Mr. Stanley for attending the meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
