Washington County Fair Board

Minutes of a meeting of the Washington County Fair Board held Friday, August 14, 1981, during the County Fair beginning at 7:07 p.m.

Charles Colegrove	Mike Swan	Valerie Bentley
Agnes DeLashmutt

The Board has been having trouble with the operators of the food concession called Holy Guacamole. The Board asked them to stop selling several items that were not included on their contract. The concessionaire feels he is being singled out and discriminated against. The Board is following policy and the contract states the concessionaire is to sell only items listed on the contract.

The Board suggested to the owner that he donate the unused food to a local church. Now the concessionaire has requested to give away the food he is not allowed to sell. This will not be allowed. The Board feels he could donate the food to a charity so that he will not take a loss.

The Board will decide at their Saturday morning meeting what action to take on Holy Guacamole. The operator has been warned if he did not follow the contract, he would be asked to leave the grounds.

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Bentley

LIVESTOCK

A bull has been entered in open class and does not have a nose ring or tongs. Last year there was a safety problem with the same bull, and he was not judged in the showing but in the barn. The Beef Superintendent is concerned about safety aspects. There are no rules specific to this problem in the Premium Book. The Board thinks it should be common sense to control a bull. Swan and Colegrove will talk with the owner about resolving the problem.

ELECTRICITY

The Dairywives Booth is still experiencing electrical problems. The maintenance crew and Sunset Electric have been working on the problem with no success. It may be a refrigeration problem. Meanwhile the concessionaire has ice cream stored in other freezers.

TICKET
SELLERS

The ticket sellers are running awfully long on the gates. They may not be tearing tickets because they are afraid they will be short. Hesse has stressed the need to tear each ticket as sold.

DEO

The first performance of the rodeo was well attended.

Overall the Fair is running very smoothly.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
