Tulip Festival Month

March 1 - 31

Poston Gardens, opening March 2019, will be home to over one million blooming tulips right here in Waxahachie with activities planned throughout the month. Adjacent to Daymark Living, the tulips will bloom throughout the 60 acre site farmed by original tulip farmers from Holland. Most importantly, a portion of the profits from Poston Gardens will go towards improving the lives of adults with intellectual disabilities (IDD). Visit Poston Gardens, take home fresh tulips, experience the Dutch culture and meet the residents from Daymark Living that are making it happen!

Scarborough Renaissance Festival

Saturdays & Sundays for 8 weekends through (and including) Memorial Day from 10 am - 7 pm

Take a trip back in time and feast on turkey legs where courtesans and knights travel in festive costume and entertain with full combat jousting, sword fighting, acrobats, Scottish bagpipes, birds of prey, comedians, fire juggling and much more. IH-35E South, Exit 399A. 972-938-3247 or www.srfestival.com.

Crossroads of Texas Film & Music Festival

A tribute festival each spring that not only celebrates Waxahachie-made films, but also salutes films made in Texas or by Texans. Come join us for four days of fun, films, food, music and more! For tickets and more information: www.crossroadsoftx.com.

Waxahachie Cinco de Mayo Festival

First Saturday in May

The Waxahachie Cinco de Mayo Fiesta is a celebration of Hispanic heritage combining live music, food, arts & crafts, contests, and good old fashioned family fun in downtown Waxahachie. www.elliscountyhispanicorg.com.

Gingerbread Trail Home Tour

Historic Sites & Museums

Chautauqua Auditorium

Located in Getzendaner Park, this auditorium is one of the few octagonal auditoriums in America. The Chautauqua is open during special events and during the Gingerbread Trail.

CNB of Texas Money Museum

One of the most expansive collections of American currency in the country. This numismatic collection of exhibits and history features a $5,000 bill and a $10,000 bill on public display during the bank's lobby hours. Located at 200 N. Elm.

Ellis County African American Hall of Fame

Built in 1926, the building was historically a Knights of Pythias Lodge that later became the Prince Hall Masonic Lodge. In October 2015, the building reopened as the Ellis County African American Hall of Fame to honor notable locals and provide a venue for meetings, events and classes. Located at 441 E. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., 214-980-1011.

Ellis County Courthouse

Built in 1895, this courthouse is listed in the top 100 most photographed structures in the State of Texas. It features the Richardsonian Romanesque architectural style. Visit the Courthouse downtown on the square.

Ellis County Museum

This museum includes the Heritage Visitor Center of Waxahachie. The museum rekindles the past as it highlights the rich history of Ellis County. Located at 201 S. College St., 972-937-0681. Museum hours are: Monday – Saturday, 10 am – 5 pm, and Sunday, 12 pm – 4 pm.

Historic Downtown District

Home to a myriad of antique shops, restaurants, boutiques, and specialty stores and famous for a great dining and shopping experience.

Historic MKT Depot

Built in 1908 to serve the community as a stop on the Missouri-Kansas-Texas rail line for many years, hauling locally grown cotton to markets and local soldiers to and from several wars. Passenger service was discontinued in 1964 but the depot continued to service freight trains on their way through Waxahachie until 1988. In 2007 the land underneath the depot and the right-of-way were acquired from the railroads by the City of Waxahachie. The City then purchased the depot building in 2008 and started the restoration project. The restoration of the MKT Depot was completed in November of 2010. The building is now home to a specialty retail store.

Historic Rogers Street Bridge

This bridge is perhaps the most unique engineering feature in the historic district. Manufactured by the Wrought Iron Bridge Company in Canton, Ohio, it was shipped by rail to Waxahachie and assembled on site. Today, it is a connected piece of the Waxahachie Creek Hike & Bike Trail.

Joshua Chapel AME Church

Located at 110 Aiken, this church is a prominent architectural, social and religious landmark. This building was designed in 1917 by noted African-American architect William Sidney Pittman.

Sims Library

An excellent example of Neoclassical Architecture, this library is a popular stop on the Waxahachie driving tour. Located at 515 W. Main St., 972-937-2671.

Southwestern Assemblies of God University

This university is located in historic buildings once occupied by Trinity University, and an example of the Jacobean Revival architectural style. Located at 1200 Sycamore, 972-937-4010.

Waxahachie Historic Cemeteries

Cemeteries located throughout the area have many historic markers.
