APPLICATION INFORMATION & STEPS

There is No Entry Fee(s)

1. 300-600 Word Essay on “What the West End Fair Means to the Community” (30 pts)
 - a. Must be typed

- b. Must be between 300-600 word count
- c. Essay MUST be sent in with the Application
- d. Essay is judged on 3 items:
 - i. Content- The meaning and feeling of the essay. Passion is more important than facts.
 - ii. Grammar
 - iii. Spelling
- e. This is worth 30 points to your overall score. Spend some time on what you want to say. This is the first impression you leave on the judges.

2. Interview Process is 3 Steps

One by one each contestant will go into the room with a panel of judges.

Below are the steps of the Interview Process in order for preparation.

1. Professional/Introduction (20 pts)

- a. You have approximately 15 seconds to walk in, approach the judges, and introduce yourself.
- b. This part of the interview is based on 3 Categories:

- i. Appearance- Wear what you would wear to a job interview.
“Business Attire”

- ii. Content

- 1. Standard Introduction Example: “Hello, my name is Sarah. I am 15 years old. I attend Pleasant Valley Middle School. I grew up in Brodheadsville and currently plan to go into the veterinary field when I am done with school.”

- 2. Be unique and be you! While we have shared some tips and tricks listed above you can always put your own style on it.

- iii. Presence- The best trick for this is to be prepared. Think about what you want to say before the day of the interview, memorize it, Keep it simple so it’s easier to remember. Shake hands with the judges if you feel comfortable. Smile.

2. Personal Interview (20 pts)

- a. This is approximately 10 minutes where the contestant and the judges get to ask questions and talk about things that are important to the fair and agricultural industries.
- b. Judging Criteria based on a few different categories:
 - i. Conversational Ability
 - ii. Answers to Questions -
 - iii. Appearance/Poise/Presence
 - iv. Interview Conduct
 - v. Activities
 - vi. Knowledge of the Fair -
 1. You do not have to be an expert on agriculture or be in 4H to join this competition. Passion for tourism and how it helps agriculture and promotes a healthy community is just as valuable. Honesty and Passion goes a long way.

3. Speech Presentation (30 pts)

- a. This is approximately a 3-5 minute speech (yes it's timed) right after the interview.
- b. Topic - "Why Agriculture is Important in Pennsylvania"
- c. This should be a persuasive speech suitable for an adult audience. Contestants will be judged on the effectiveness of their public speaking skills, not "entertainment". Overhead projectors or PowerPoint presentations are not permitted.
- d. Judging Criteria:
 - i. Speech content (to include agriculture)
 - ii. Speech format
 - iii. Conveys the importance of The West End Fair/PA fairs
 - iv. Public Speaking Ability
 - v. Poise/Presence
- e. Submit Copy of your Speech day of the interview

3. Complete Application

5. Send in Completed Packet

- It is the responsibility of the contestant to provide the committee with at least two current telephone numbers and an email address. A prompt response is required within 24 hours.
- During fair week, all contestants are expected to participate in the fair week events and to help sell Fair Queen Program 50/50 tickets. (at least 2 days for all contestants that do not place) Failure to do so will impact running for the following year
- All contestants, Junior Miss, and Runner Up will be obligated to participate in scheduled events, activities, and public discussions.
- In the event of a natural disaster or other event, the fair Junior Miss committee may change the dates and times as noted above.
- In the event, that the West End Fair Junior Miss cannot fulfill her duties; the runner-up will become the West End Fair Junior Miss.
- Junior Miss, Runner Up must be an active participant in the required number of events listed to receive a scholarship.
- Mode of transportation for scheduled events will be determined by the Fair Queen committee with input from participants. Factors such as insurance will be considered when finalizing all decisions. In other words, the Fair Queen committee will make the final determination.
- It is the responsibility of the Junior Miss committee to remain in contact with the contestants to relay any changes in locations and times.
- SOCIAL MEDIA accounts cannot be created without authorization using the West End Fair's name and/or logo. The queen and her court may send pictures or ideas to the coordinator for review before posts are made.
- The West End Fair Queen committee does not have to provide or disclose any scoring information as directed by the PA State Fair Queen program.

PARENT AGREEMENT

As a parent you will play a crucial role in this program that has been set in place to help your child grow and learn. As such there are guidelines for behavior and expectations that must be followed. Failure to do so will result in the loss of scholarships & future opportunities.

Parent behavior and expectations:

1. Conduct- Whether your child wins or not, the expectation is that all parents behave in a positive manner. Poor behavior, or quiet bullying will not be acceptable. Any verbal or written negative comments will result in disqualification. Any and all negative comments made will be addressed by the Fair Queen Committee who has sole discretion on the actions that will be taken.
 - a. These are all young girls. They do not deserve to be bullied by anyone, but especially not adults. Our goal is to strengthen girls' self esteem by positive reinforcement.
2. Support Program Values- I will support the values and expectations of the West End Fair Queen Program regarding conduct, dress code, and behavior policies.
3. Participation- I will attend events with my daughter and recognize our joint participation is essential. Unless she is 18 or older.
4. Communication- Communication works both ways. We will communicate respectfully, although final decisions will rest with Fair Queen Committee members.
5. Understanding Consequences- : I understand that I am an advocate for my child. If I violate this agreement it may lead to disqualification of my child from the competition.

I have read and agree to this Parent Agreement.
