

INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES

- Judges will not permit exhibitors to make themselves known unless absolutely necessary.
- Judges will pay no attention to any article or animal not having entry tag attached.
- Judges will attach blue ribbons to animals or articles taking first premium and red to those taking second, and yellow to those taking third premium.
- Exhibitors who interfere with judges in making their awards will forfeit their premiums. Judges will report such cases to the Secretary.
- The Judges on agricultural products will give preference to such varieties as are adapted to the interest of the farmer, regarding yield, quality and market value thereof.
- Judges will sign their reports as soon as finished and leave with the superintendent of the department.

Articles or entries exhibited and not listed in any department will be classified at the discretion of the Judges.
The decision of the Judges shall be final.
