

Attention Future Fair or Special Event Industry Professionals

Blue Ribbon Foundation/WFA Convention Internship Program

The Blue Ribbon Foundation is pleased to offer a unique and exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic college student or individual aged 18-23 to serve as an intern at Western Fairs Association's Annual Convention and Trade Show, January 16-19, 2022 at the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno, Nevada.

The Blue Ribbon Foundation is a charitable, nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the fair industry through professional and public outreach.

General Position Summary

Students selected will contribute to and participate in a variety of Convention functions including: convention registration, committee meetings, Audio Visual support and technical trouble-shooting for educational sessions, receptions, charitable auctions and networking activities. Interning at the Western Fairs Association Convention not only helps ensure the Convention will run smoothly, but allows interns the opportunity to become more involved with Western Fairs Association and the Blue Ribbon Foundation. Interns will interact and network with members and industry leaders and learn more about the issues occurring throughout the fair industry.

General Information

The position begins at 1pm on Saturday, January 15, 2022 and concludes on Wednesday, January 19, 2022 at 9pm.

Interns will report to Miki Martin , Communications Manager with Western Fairs Association but may also interact with the Executive Director, Meetings & Trade Show Manager and the Accounting Manager.

Interns will be expected to dress in business-casual attire, and unless otherwise noted, will be committed for day long intervals. Two Blue Ribbon Intern polo shirts will be provided upon arrival. The Blue Ribbon Foundation will cover the cost of hotel rooms and will provide a travel stipend (payable upon arrival). Please note that interns will be required to pay for any incidentals and a credit card will be required by the hotel at check-in.

The Blue Ribbon Foundation takes the responsibility of this internship program very seriously and is dedicated to ensuring the students selected receive adequate opportunities for professional development throughout the program. Each intern will receive professional supervision to ensure that the experience proves beneficial to all parties involved.
