

WESTERN FAIRS ASSOCIATION MEMBERS!!
WESTERN FAIRS ASSOCIATION IS LOOKING FOR A NEW TEAM MEMBER!!

Western Fairs Association is hiring a Communications Manager!! Do you know someone who may be a good fit?!

The ideal candidate is someone looking to help us market the association, our brand, and benefits we provide our membership. Western Fairs Association is a well-established Association, with a dedicated membership and loyal staff.

This Communications Manager position will oversee communications for the association, including: all social media, monthly newsletters, quarterly magazine publications, the annual membership publication, the association website, mobile app, convention related communication, special projects and so much more!

The Communications Manager job is based in Sacramento, California at the Western Fairs Association headquarters. The Communications Manager will be joining a small but very fun team in an exciting events industry. The candidate will be able to develop the position allowing for future growth.

The Communications Manager will also work with our Executive Director on legislative tasks, assisting with implementation of funding, communicating the process to the members, assisting with analysis of bills, technical writing, meeting with legislators, etc.

Western Fairs Association is looking for a smart, articulate, well-spoken team member with strong writing and proofreading skills, and excellent customer service via phone, email and in-person. The candidate will work with a diverse group of individuals and organizations. Added bonus if the candidate is interested in Fairs, the Fair Industry or event planning. The candidate will possess computer skills, social media knowledge, writing skills, creativity, and flexibility. The position includes the possibility of travel, and the opportunity to get involved in an exciting event industry.

Western Fairs Association offers benefits, including health, vision and dental. Starting salary is based on experience. Email Executive Director Cummings with your resume, availability and contact information.

The Communications Manager position is currently open, looking to fill immediately. Position will remain open until filled.

Send resumes to: sarah@fairsnet.org