Abilene, TX - The Expo Center Board of Directors and staff are excited to introduce our new Concessionaire for the Expo Center grounds: Screaming Goat Enterprises! Screaming Goat Enterprises will provide all food and beverage concessions for the facility year around.

“This partnership will provide the Expo Center patrons with quality food and beverages for horse shows, stock shows, concerts and trade shows. We are pleased to be working with Kris, Crystal, Donovan and Moi and look forward to providing quality service to our customers”, said Expo Center General Manager Rochelle Johnson.

“Screaming Goat Enterprises is proud to announce its 5 year Concession's Partnership with The Taylor County Expo Center. We cannot thank Rochelle Johnson and the Board of Directors enough for giving us this opportunity. Screaming Goat Enterprises is excited to take on this new adventure by providing great customer service, quality food selections, and helping provide more live entertainment at the Taylor County Coliseum. Keep your eyes open for our future plans to build our first brick and mortar featuring a family casual dining concept that serves pizza, burgers, wings, and more alongside a full service bar that will also provide the occasional live entertainment.”
