5. If a pig loses its ear tag, exhibitor must notify their Ag Science Teacher, 4-H Advisor, and the Swine Chairmen immediately. The animal must be tagged to show and the old tag turned in.

6. All hogs must be castrated prior to fair check in.

7. Animals will be weighed at check-in. The weight limit is between 230-290 pounds. A three pound over/under tolerance will be allowed. The scales will be official. Exhibitors must clean their hog's ear tags prior to being allowed to unload. If the hog's weight does not fall in this range, if an alternate pig has been tagged in and that alternate hog is on the trailer, exhibitor will be allowed to weigh in the alternate hog. Exhibitors will not be allowed to leave the fairgrounds in order to retrieve an alternate.

8. If the swine weighs within the 230-290 weight limit the animal will be considered checked in and will show according to that weight class. Use of an alternate to change the weight class will not be allowed. No altering of hogs of any kind for added weight will be allowed.

9. If a hog is family tagged, the exhibitor must decide which hog he/she will show before the cards are turned in. Once the cards have been turned into the committee it will be official and the exhibitor must show that hog. Be sure the tag number and name on the card matches the exhibitor.

10. Only exhibitor and one parent/individual to assist will be allowed in the Johse barn during the show. The only individuals allowed in the show arena and holding pens will be the exhibitor, Swine Committee members and volunteers approved by the Swine Committee. No parents or individuals will be allowed to assist in these areas during the show. At the conclusion of the last class, a 10-minute break will be taken. At this time, the last class winners will be allowed to go back to their pen or wait in the picture alley. Only at this time may a parent assist their child in these areas. No parent will be allowed in the arena for the champion drive.

11. Once weigh in is complete, hogs will be divided into classes of approximately the same number per class. The Swine Committee will determine the number of classes. Only the 1st and 2nd place swine in each class will be eligible for competition in championship judging.
12. In preparing the animals for show, no clipping, no oil or oil-based grooming aides or powders will be allowed at the Fairgrounds. Use of oil or oil-based grooming aids will be grounds for disqualification from the show.
