

DIVISION `Ba' CATTLE — DAIRY

Superintendent: Keith Duske. 5700 Cushing Ave SW. Waverly, MN. 55390. 763-658-4728

1. All registered and grade will be combined into one class.
2. Exhibitors must furnish their own hay, straw, and feed. Due to limited space, supplies cannot be stored in the stalls. Once all cattle are stalled some areas for supplies may be designated.
3. Exhibitors may exhibit any entry in all 3 shows. Any exhibit in 4-H, FFA, and Open Class may enter any show, provided the proper registration is received for each entry in each show by the date entries are set to close for each show. This rule must be strictly adhered to in order to provide accurate placing recording at each show. Any entry not on the pre-printed entry listing cannot receive a premium.
4. Entry Fee: $3.00 per head. Mail check and entry form (located at the beginning of the premium listings) before July 6th. Mail Dairy entries to Keith Duske at address listed above. There is no entry fee for FFA exhibitors.
5. Entries accepted on a first come, first-serve basis until barns are full.
6. Judging begins with the 4-H show at 8:00 AM FRIDAY, followed by the Open Class and FFA cow classes, then take a lunch break. The Youth Division Show will be the first class following lunch break.
7. The Open Class Dairy and FFA show will begin immediately following the 4-H Dairy Show.
8. The Open Class and FFA Dairy show will begin with the milking age classes beginning with lot 9 through lot 17 and Lot 21 Best Udder. Following the milking age classes, a lunch break will be held. The Open Class Youth Division Show will be the first class after lunch break using both rings. Following the Youth division, the young female classes 1-8 will be judged. The group classes, Open Class lots 18-20 will be the final classes judged.
9. The FFA Classes will be judged in the same ring at the same time as the open class. If an exhibit is entered in both of these shows it will receive a placing, ribbon and premium for both shows. Lots 1-19 are the same for both shows. Both shows will be recognized and announced by the judge and the announcers.
10. No bull classes are offered in the Wright County Fair Open Class Dairy Show.
11. All Open Class and FFA cattle must be checked in at the 4-H Livestock check in by 12:00 PM Wednesday.
12. ALL Dairy exhibitors must attend a required exhibitor meeting at 8:30 PM on Wednesday evening. This includes 4-H, FFA, and Open Class.
13. All animals in group classes must have been exhibited in their respective classes by the exhibitor of the group.
14. It is expected that barn chores are completed, and the cattle and barns are ready for the public to visit by 12:00 PM Wednesday through Sunday of the fair.
