Dear York State Fair Exhibitors,

Welcome to the 2025 York State Fair which marks the 260th anniversary of our Fair! As we celebrate this incredible milestone, I would like to recognize all the entrants from previous years. Our Fair is what it is today because of the contributions of the past. In this same vein our Fair will be highly regarded in the future because of the contributions you make today whether it be baked, grown, canned or quilted. Your efforts to be the best at your craft provide products that challenge the judges to determine a singular winner. Thanks to you, the York State Fair will continue to be a tribute to and recognition of the Agricultural heritage that is woven deep into our community. Good luck!
